Hue tour - shore excursion

Pick up and drop off: Cau Da international port

07:00 AM – Pickup at Chan May Port

Your day begins with a prompt pickup from Chan May Port, where you will be warmly greeted by your guide and driver. After a brief introduction and ensuring you're comfortably settled, you will embark on a scenic drive towards Hue, passing through picturesque landscapes and local scenery.

08:30 AM – Visit Imperial City Citadel

Upon arrival in Hue, you will proceed to the Imperial City Citadel, a magnificent UNESCO World Heritage Site renowned for its historical and architectural significance. The Citadel's rich history and impressive structures, including temples and ceremonial courtyards, provide a fascinating glimpse into Vietnam's royal past.

12:00 PM – Lunch at a Local Restaurant

02:00 PM – Visit Tu Duc Tomb

In the early afternoon, you will head to the impressive tomb of Emperor Tu Duc, known for its serene and picturesque setting amidst lush gardens and tranquil lakes. The historical and cultural significance of Tu Duc's final resting place offers a deeper understanding of Vietnam's royal heritage.

03:30 PM – Visit Thien Mu Pagoda

Following your visit to Tu Duc Tomb, you will travel to Thien Mu Pagoda, one of the oldest and most revered pagodas in Vietnam, perched on the banks of the Perfume River. The seven-story pagoda, with its graceful design and peaceful surroundings, provides a serene backdrop for reflection and exploration.

04:30 PM – Return to Chan May Port

As the afternoon draws to a close, you will begin your return journey to Chan May Port, taking in the scenic views along the way. The drive back offers a final opportunity to relax and reflect on the day's experiences. By 5:00 PM, you will arrive back at Chan May Port, concluding your enriching and memorable day trip.
